

Hoover Urges
Halt To Money
Lending, Quit
30 U.S. Groups

Washington, April 1 (AP) — The Hoover commission today asked Congress to put the government out of the money-lending business and eliminate 30 Federal agencies by merger or liquidation.

The group's report on "Federal Business Enterprises" was so snarled by dissenting opinions that on one subject — public power — it could offer no recommendation which had majority support.

But a majority urged that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the big source of Federal credit in war and depression, be re-organized into a mere guarantor of private bank loans.

"Waste, Corruption" — "Waste and favoritism" and "even corruption" are invited when the government makes direct loans to firms and individuals in the housing, farm and industrial fields, said the members led by Chairman Herbert Hoover.

Sharp disagreement on this — and on proposed curtailment of Federal power activities — was led by Secretary of State Acheson, vice chairman.

The result was a report marked by basic policy conflicts, the last of an 18-installment series on government reform drafted by the 12-member, bi-partisan commission headed by the former Republican president.

There was agreement that rent control, now managed by the housing expediter, should be brought under the government's central housing agency as should loan guarantees under the "GI Bill of Rights," now handled by the Veterans Administration.

Because of its hopeless deadlock on public power, the group wound up making no formal recommendations on that topic. Instead, it split into factions, each of which wrote its own power "suggestions."

Cites Duplication
Hoover, heading a bloc of five, urged that the government end its hydroelectric operations at the dams, instead of putting up transmission.

TRIAL IN APRIL

County Prothonotary Arthur H. Shields today announced that five civil cases have been set down for the April term of court.

Those scheduled for the term include the action in trespass brought by Fred E. Bertha S. and Franchot E. Strickhouser, of Gettysburg, against the Borough of Gettysburg and Paul E. Little. The case is the second on the trial list, and unless the number one case folds, will be heard in that order when civil trials begin during the week of April 25. The Strickhousers are asking damages for injuries suffered by Franchot when his bicycle caught in a depression in West Stevens street and he was thrown under a truck driven by Little. The law firm of Swope, Brown and Swope represents the Strickhousers; Bulleit and Bulleit, the borough, and Keith, Bigham and Markley, represent Little, according to the list.

Other Cases
The number one case is a mechanics lien by which L. E. Grogg, doing business as Grogg Brothers is seeking to obtain money which he claims was not paid for service rendered to Michael and Lavina MacCarty. Attorney J. Francis Yake, Jr., represents Grogg.

Both are represented by Swope, Brown and Swope and both are suing the same parties; Roadway express, represented by Attorney Donald P. McPherson, Jr.; George Stanko, represented by Keith, Bigham and Markley and Gerald Adolph and William Aldinger, trading as Honeybrook Gas company, represented by Attorney Daniel E. Teeter. The action in trespass suits are the result of a vehicular crash in which a barn was also damaged.

WORK AT FINAL
NIGHT SESSION

The second annual Gettysburg Recreation Association night school came to an end Thursday, with officials and those attending the school immediately laying plans for another session next year.

The approximately 200 adult students of the school concluded their studies during the first hour Thursday night and then went on tour to view the exhibits arranged by each class. Among the largest displays were those of the photography, drawing and sewing classes. The dancing class gave a square dance for the entertainment of the other students visiting that room.

VICTIM OF TWO INVASIONS WILL SPEAK TONIGHT

The Rev. Wasy Seredowich, rector of a Ukrainian church in Baltimore, will be one of the speakers at a meeting to be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the arbitration room at the court house to explain how Adams contains many obtain displaced Ukrainians from U.S. camps in Europe for farm and domestic help.

Rev. Seredowich, who came to the United States about a year ago, was among many hundreds of Ukrainians who became victims of first the Russian, and then the Nazi invasions of their country, often called "the bread basket of Europe."

Other Speakers

The meeting has been arranged by J. W. Bishop, near New Chester, who brought the first Ukrainian from a displaced persons camp to Adams county in February. John Shchupakiwsky, a former store owner in Lviv, Ukraine, Mr. Bishop's protegee, will tell of his experiences.

Principal speaker will be Dr. Walter Galian, executive director of the United Ukrainian-American Relief committee, Inc., of Philadelphia, which arranges to bring Ukrainians to this country.

FRUIT GROWERS
SAY PEACHES IN CRITICAL STAGE

Adams county fruit growers were reminded today in two ways of the various problems connected with horticulture.

From the weather they received a threat to the buds, many of which are just about at the "opening stage." From County Agent M. T. Hartman they received spray letters for apple and peach disease and pest control.

In connection with the weather, the fruit growers held that the peach buds can stand a temperature of about 25 degrees for a day or two. The thermometer is scheduled to drop near that point tonight. The weatherman also added the possibility of snow flurries mixed with light rain followed by clear and colder weather Saturday.

Blossoms Near

A prolonged warm spell over the past week pushed buds so near the point of opening that there was scattered reports of some peach trees already being in blossom. Peach in general and some early variety of apples, unless held back by the cold weather, are expected to blossom within the next few days.

In Franklin county many fruit growers reported having smudge pots ready in an attempt to protect the buds if the weather turns too cold. Adams county men for the most part question the use of smudges. John R. Wilson, Biglerville grower, was one of those reporting not too much success with smudge pots last year, but added he will try again if the mercury drops too far. He added that another day of warm weather will bring out peach blossoms on his 40-acre orchard.

Leaders Agree With Churchill
Atomic Bomb Forestalled War

Washington, April 1 (AP)—Congressional leaders agreed today with Winston Churchill that world peace now hangs on continued possession of the atomic bomb secret by this country.

Churchill's speech in Boston last night produced the expected reaction in Congress.

In general, the lawmakers who support such foreign policy moves expressed their approval. But there were critics—led by Senator Langer (R-N. D.), who carried on a bitter attack on the wartime British Prime Minister on the Senate floor yesterday.

Senator McMahon (D-Conn.), chairman of the joint Congressional Atomic committee, said of the Boston speech:

"Mr. Churchill correctly judges the part the atomic bomb plays in presently keeping the peace. However we shall not remain the exclusive possessor in the future and Mr. Churchill, unlike so many others, realizes it."

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), dies.

When Mrs. Tessie Beatrice Smiley, 44, of York Springs R. 1, borrowed her daughter's operator's license to drive her husband's car, she started a chain of circumstances which cost her a total of $60 in fines, plus costs, her husband $25 and costs, and will, state police said, cost her daughter another fine and costs.

State police of the Gettysburg substation said Mrs. Smiley paid a fine of $50 and costs to Justice of the Peace David Hykes, New Oxford, for displaying an operator's license issued to her daughter, as her own, when stopped on a routine check by state police. She was also fined $10 and costs for driving an automobile without an operator's license.

Her husband, G. W. Smiley, paid a fine of $25 and costs to Squire Hykes, on a charge of permitting an unlicensed operator to drive his car. State police said the daughter, Tessie Beatrice Gardner, York Springs R. 1, would be charged with lending her license.

MENDELSSOHN'S
GREATEST WORK
TO BE FEATURED
SUNDAY EVENING

The "Variations Serieuses," deemed by critics and music lovers to be among the greatest of the works of Felix Mendelssohn for piano solo, will be one of the feature numbers on the program by Constance Keene, young American pianist, who comes to the Majestic theater Sunday night for the third and concluding concert in the 1948-1949 series of the Gettysburg Concert association.

Outstanding compositions of Brahms, Mendelssohn, Bach, Debussy and Chopin will be included in Miss Keene's program, as well as numbers by Paradies, Gluck, and Chasins. The program is arranged in four parts with the Mendelssohn number and "Rhapsody in G minor, Op. 79, No. 2," by Johannes Brahms included in part 1.

Miss Keene, in the following three parts, will play "Tocata A major," by Pietro Domenico Paradies, dramatic composer and harpsichord player; "Melody from Orfeo" by Christoph Willibald Gluck, arranged by Chasins; "Gavotte and Gigue," from Bach's fifth French suite, G. major; "Schwanda" fantasy, by Abram Chasins, based on two themes from Weinberger's "Polka."

Her other numbers will include Debussy's G major and E major Arabesques and "Goliwog's Cake Walk." The latter number portrays the nursery monstrosity sporting himself in dance, and reveals the humorous side of the composer.

Three numbers by Frederic Chopin will conclude the concert, "The Maiden's Wish" transcribed by Liszt; "Nocturne in E major, Op. 62, No. 2," and "Polonaise in A flat, Op. 53."

PRICE OF MILK
DROPS CENT A QUART TODAY

The retail price of milk was reduced one cent a quart in Gettysburg and other Pennsylvania communities today. Prices here vary from 18 and one-half cents a quart to 20 and one-half cents.

The producer price also dropped 40 cents a hundredweight (46 1/2 quarts) in the seven areas comprising Philadelphia, suburban Philadelphia, Lehigh, Reading, York, Lancaster and Harrisburg.

The reduction is in line with the state Milk Control commission's seasonal pricing system.

The commission also announced that light cream prices dropped from 24 to 23 cents in the seven areas, and was accompanied with general reduction of from five to three cents a quart in the price of ice cream.

The reduced prices will extend until July 1 and then go up a cent. On October 1 they will go up still another penny. They will drop a cent on January 1, 1950, completing the seasonal pricing cycle.

The commission explained that the seasonal pricing system was devised in an attempt to stimulate milk production during periods of the year when cows are producing less milk. Cows generally produce less milk during the fall and more during the so-called "flush period" of April, May and June.

The three-month-old PenMarVa Packing cooperative Thursday afternoon voted to change its name to Knouse Foods Cooperative, Inc. Stockholders, meeting at the Knouse plant at Peach Glen, raised the question that PenMarVa is "jawbreaking" combination that is unknown in the fruit world and then voted to take advantage of the name of M. E. Knouse, who is well known throughout the industry.

Those suggesting the change pointed out that Mr. Knouse in 1947 received national honor when he was cited by the National Apple Institute as the outstanding processor of the year. They said that the public was familiar with the Knouse packing company name from its many years of providing quality foods before it was merged with National Fruit. They also pointed out that the Knouse name in connection with the National Fruit plant was better known than National Fruit, citing their experience at National Fruit and other meetings. As a result the group voted to take advantage of the name and changed the title of the cooperative. Attorneys were instructed to proceed with the legal formalities necessary in connection with the change.

Vote Is Unanimous

The vote on the name change was unanimous.

M. E. Knouse was elected president and treasurer of the cooperative at the board of directors meeting held in connection with the stockholders session. John B. Peters, Gardners R. D., was elected vice president; D. M. Bream, Chambersburg, secretary; R. S. Dillon, Jr., Hancock, Md., assistant secretary; Henry W. Miller, Jr., Paw Paw, Va., assistant treasurer.

Named to the executive committee were John B. Peters, M. E. Knouse, D. M. Bream, Mrs. Eva M. Pape, Gettysburg; Henry W. Miller, Jr., and I. Z. Musselman, Orttanna. Selected as a board of trustees were Lee F. Pratt, Chambersburg; William M. Lott, Gardners R. D.; R. C. McDonald, Shippensburg; C. Earl Brown, Chambersburg; E. C. McFadden, Martinsburg, W. Va.; and Stanley M. Fulton, Hancock, Md.

The board of directors also appointed a public relations committee comprising John B. Peters; L. V. Garretson, Arendtsville; S. A. Heisey, Greencastle; R. Samuel Dillon; J. E. McDonald, Martinsburg and H. F. Hershey, Hamburg.

President Knouse announced that the board of directors will meet again in regular session at the home office at Peach Glen April 14.

SEEK YOUTHS
IN HOLD-UP

Two youths described as being about 20 years of age were being sought for the holdup of Wolfe's garage, owned by Walter Wolfe, York Springs justice of the peace, at 3 o'clock this morning.

State police of the Gettysburg substation said the two youths entered the garage and told George Stallsmith, night attendant, to "stick 'em up." They also ordered Stallsmith to lie down on his stomach.

Sgt. W. Kurt Duhrkoff, in charge of the local substation, said "a lot of talk" followed, during which the youths told Stallsmith "We got a gun, but it isn't loaded," and that they wanted money to buy gas to get to Baltimore.

Stallsmith, state police said, gave the youths a dollar, and they left, walking in the direction of Harrisburg. Later information was to the effect that the youths entered an automobile a short distance from the garage and drove away.

SAYS GOOD WILL AMONG NATIONS LEADS TO PEACE

"Only good will among all men can lead to peace," the Rev. Nevil E. Smith, Hanover, declared Thursday evening in a talk given before the Adams County Senior Extension club at a banquet held in the Biglerville grade school auditorium.

He also pointed out that "farmers should be the recipients of medals for the wonderful job they have done in feeding America and the world." He said that those in the armed forces were presented with citations and awards for their outstanding deeds and that "such a program should have been carried out in connection with the farmers; most of whom produced more than duty required."

72nd Birthday Is Marked At Dinner

George M. Neely, retired postmaster of Fairfield, is 72 years old today and he and Mrs. Neely are celebrating the occasion by having as dinner guests in their home in Fairfield his fellow-members of the Session of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian church.

The Session consists of the Rev. Harry S. Ecker, moderator, and these ruling elders: Dr. Ira M. Henderson, clerk; Mr. Neely, treasurer; J. Luther Scott, S. Albert Culbertson, D. Walker Woods, William M. Scott and James W. Bigham.

Postmaster for many years in Fairfield, Mr. Neely is an active churchman and for a long period served as superintendent of the Sunday school. He has been an elder for 20 years. He is also widely known throughout the county in lodge circles.

GIVEN CHAIR FOR MURDERING TWO WITH HATCHET

Beaver, Pa., April 1 (AP)— John William Givens, 52, today was sentenced to death in the electric chair for the hatchet killing of two elderly men in July, 1947.

Judges Robert E. McCreary and Morgan H. Sohn set the degree of guilt at first degree murder after hearing testimony in the case.

The judges told Givens: "It was with deep feeling of regret that we as judges felt compelled to the conclusions of us in this case. Both of us have a deep-seated personal prejudice against the taking of human life even though the law of Pennsylvania as now written prescribes it as our duty."

Thanks Court
"We have carefully weighed this strong prejudice we have against announcing a penalty that involves the life of an unfortunate fellow being on the scales with our revulsion against the atrocity of two unexcusable brutal murders. Duty to society imposed by conscience leaves us no alternative except that of fixing the penalty at death."

Givens accepted the sentence calmly. He thanked the court for the "kindness" shown him during the trial and said:

"Now I am ready to receive my sentence."

Was Farm Hand
He was returned to Beaver county jail to await removal to the death house at Bellefonte.

Givens freely admitted the hatchet killing of Joseph Neugebauer, 73, and Matthew Magana, 70, both employed at the Mt. Gallitzin academy, a Catholic boys' school near Baden, Pa. Givens worked as a farm hand at the academy.

He testified he killed the two men because he was "tired of being pushed around."

He disappeared after the killings and was not arrested until last December. He was picked up at a Colorado Springs lodging house.

EXPECT USSR TO VOID PACTS

Moscow, April 1 (AP)—The Soviet Union is virtually certain to consider her treaties with Britain and France dead upon the signing of the North Atlantic Security Alliance, informed sources said today.

The Russians denounced the pact today, calling it an offensive instrument aimed at striking fear into nations which refused to accept world domination by the British and Americans. The Soviet memorandum to the seven original sponsors of the Atlantic Pact said the treaty undermines the "very foundations" of the United Nations and violates international agreements.

(The British Foreign Office rejected any suggestion by Russia that the Atlantic Treaty violates either the U.N. Charter or the British-Russian friendship treaty.) When the Soviet Foreign Ministry originally denounced the Atlantic Alliance early this year, diplomats took the view that the 20-year treaties signed by France and Britain with Russia during the war were in jeopardy.

The Russians now have raised just this point: That clauses in both treaties stipulate that neither party shall join alliances directed against the other. The Soviet note to the originators of the Atlantic Pact said it is "directed against the Soviet Union" is "openly aggressive" in character.

Says Schools Must Get Close To Life

Philadelphia, April 1 (AP)—The necessity of breaking down the ivy wall of educational institutions and bringing them closer to the reality of life was stressed today at a session of Schoolmen's Week at the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Raymond Kistler, president of Beaver college told the group that parents and teachers must become a more co-operative team.

"Communities need to be school conscious and school community conscious," Dr. Kistler said. "Community leaders and parents are too often content to leave all school problems to school authorities. Parents could be more helpful," Dr. Kistler pointed out, "by persuading citizens to pay more taxes for that is obviously the only way that education can be improved and teachers salaries bettered."

call for a delayed dormant spray on apples now to prevent early scab infection, control red mite, red bug and scale insects and kill hatched aphids. A Bordeaux 2-2-100 and three gallons 83 percent oil emulsion is one of the formulae recommended. Green and grain aphids are plentiful on fruit buds in orchards where no dormant DN spray was applied and rosy aphid eggs are starting to hatch in some orchards, he reported. He also added that about one-third of the scab spores are ready to shoot, which means the delayed dormant spray "will be one of the most important this year, if wet weather develops."

For peaches Hartman recommended flotation sulphur at 12 pounds per 100 gallons of spray or 70 percent wettable sulphur paste at eight pounds per 100 gallons to control brown rot. He also urged removal of mummified peaches from trees, and cultivation.

APRIL 1

Beware this day, your grandpas gray!
That hat upon the walk disdain,
For should you kick, the hidden brick
May cause excruciating pain.
Still, if loud laughter be your joy
And twinkling eyes of brown or blue,
One good kick take, and let them make
A willing April fool of you.

Should salty be your cup of tea,
Remember to be solemn-faced
And sputtering say: "I'm sure to-day
The sugar has a briny taste."
And should you find your coat sleeves pinned,
Perchance a marble in your shoe,
Be glad as I, they scheme and try
To make an April fool of you.

Be not too wise; those twinkling eyes
All grandpas should delight to see.
Today be dense, and make pretense
That it is fun a fool to be.
Time takes away the games they play.
Too soon new pleasures they'll pursue.
So, let them make, for laughter's sake,
A happy April fool of you.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
SCENTS

I recently read an interesting brief essay upon Scents by the late E. V. Lucas. He wondered why there was such negligence paid to that prominent organ known as the nose. "The ear," said Lucas, "is being constantly tickled both with words and music; for the eye almost too much is done, with spectacular games, pageants, plays, and films; but nothing organized is done for the nose."

Then the noted writer named a few of his favorite scents. Here they are: "Sweet-briar in the air so vague and elusive that search cannot trace the source. Walnut leaves crushed. A racing stable. Cigars in a box. Newly split wood in a copse. Tea just opened. A circus."

Here are a few of my favorite smells, or scents: Orange blossoms on both sides of a Florida road. Pine trees stirred by the summer sun. New-mown hay. Second-hand bookshops. Earth after a summer shower. The thick forest in springtime. Crushed mint and evergreen leaves. A cedar closet. A barrel of freshly picked apples. Smoked ham. Autumn leaves burning. Hot coffee at a lunch counter in winter time. The grain bin in a barn. Any leather shop. A cider mill. Maple sugar. The salt air of the sea. Early morning dew. And all fowers!

I do not like scented soap, nor after-shaving scented lotions, nor perfume for men. (Though I do for women, who wisely choose it.) I do not like the scent of cooking food—though I do like the taste of it when hungry. But my likes in scents are far more than my dislikes.

Springtime has a scent all its own—even in the crowded city. But Springtime in the country is a festival in itself. Everything is waking up from its long sleep. There is movement everywhere. The stir of new life is on. And the warm winds bring in a mixture of scents from the four corners of the earth. All Nature is perfumed, as though awaiting its wedding gown.

Anyone who has ever visited Hawaii can never forget the scent of its flowered leis. Vendors line the roadway to ships, and are stationed in many prominent places. No Queen ascending her throne could be more gorgeously perfumed than any woman in Hawaii entering her dining room with a lei of Pikaki about her throat.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Good Hunting?"

CLAIMS GOP IS FILIBUSTERING

Washington, April 1 (AP)—Senator Connally (D-Tex.) today accused Republicans of using filibuster tactics to delay a vote on the multi-billion dollar—European recovery program.

Commenting on the lengthy and critical GOP speeches which have delayed final Senate action on the measure, Connally told a reporter: "Some of them want to delay action and embarrass the administration. But they won't succeed."

He said the aid program will not be injured seriously even if the $5,580,000,000 outlay is not approved by April 3. On that date the Economic Cooperation Administration will have spent or allocated all the funds appropriated for this year's program.

Connally is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee and floor manager of the bill to authorize a second year of Marshall plan aid for western Europe. The actual cash will be provided later by another bill.

Majority leader Lucas (D-Ill.), pressing for a final vote, said he will keep the Senate in session tonight if necessary to get action on a proposal by Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and Russell (D-Ga.).

Memolo Leaves U.S. Penitentiary Today

Lewisburg, Pa., April 1 (AP)—John Memolo, of Scranton, leaves the Federal penitentiary here today after serving one-third of a five-year sentence.

Memolo also was tried with former Judge Albert W. Johnson of the Pennsylvania Middle District and others on charges of conspiring to defraud the government and obstructing justice.

WIRE-TAPPING WILL CONTINUE ASSERTS CLARK

Washington, April 1 (AP)—Attorney General Clark today made it known that the Justice Department is not going to abandon the use of wire-tapping in cases involving national security of a matter of life and death.

He acknowledged, however, that he will not press for one controversial provision in the administration's bill to tighten anti-espionage laws. That provision would permit use in courts of information obtained from wire-tapping by the FBI and military intelligence.

The two positions were disclosed as an aftermath to a flurry created yesterday by a letter sent to Chairman McCarran (D-Nev.) of the Senate Judiciary committee. It was signed by representatives of the Americans for Democratic Action and the American Civil Liberties Union.

Clark Is Unmoved

The two organizations voiced strong approval of McCarran's action in removing the wire-tapping section from the administration bill.

They also said FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover had acknowledged publicly that the FBI does tap tele-

Stewart Long, Littlestown, will sing several tenor solos, accompanied on the piano by Miss Shirley Hawk.

phones in certain cases. The letter added that Hoover's statement "is an admission that he is violating the law."

McCarran said this wasn't so—that there is no law banning wire-tapping on the books now.

Clark, in a separate interview, told a reporter the department will continue, as it has done for many years, to tap wires when national security, or life and death such as in a kidnapping case, is involved.

He said there "is no justification" for the criticism made by the ADA and civil liberties group. McCarran also said there was no reason for any "furore." He praised Hoover as a "great American" who has done a "great job" for his country.

Both Clark and McCarran agreed that the disputed provision had been removed last month because of mounting opposition to it in Congress.

The weekly rehearsal of the Littlestown Community band and orchestra will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Littlestown fire hall.

The monthly meeting of the St. Aloysius Parish council NCCW was held Wednesday evening. Miss Theresa Anthony, president, opened the meeting with the prayer to "Our Lady of Good Counsel" and presided for the business. Miss Betty Arter, vice president, read a letter from United States Senator Edward Martin in reply to one written by Mrs. Harry Wolf in regards to federal aid to education.

The group decided to give a contribution toward the plaque to be placed in the Cathedral at Harrisburg in memory of the late Bishop Philip R. McDevitt. This is a special project sponsored by the Harrisburg Diocesan Council. The annual affiliation dues were paid to the national headquarters in Washington. Plans were also discussed for an Easter social at the next meeting on Wednesday, April 27, when there will be a hat social, games and refreshments. The meeting closed with the "Prayer for Youth" by the vice president.

makers of America will hold their fourth annual state convention in York today and Saturday, with headquarters at the Yorktowne hotel.

The voting delegate for the group is Ina Harper. Mrs. Virginia Sheely is chapter adviser and homemaking teacher.

It is expected that approximately 500 FHA members will attend. They will represent the 8,000 members in the 270 state chapters.

Trout, art supervisor, Hanover Penn high school, York, topic, "A Historic Sketch of York"; Beryl Walter, Home and Food Editor of "Seventeen" magazine, topic "Parties Win and Influence People."

MAY RESTORE
FULL VETERAN
HOSPITAL PLAN

Washington, April 1 (AP)—Members of a House Appropriations subcommittee reported privately today they have agreed to restore the veterans hospital construction program to the size it was before President Truman trimmed it.

The subcommittee action is subject to approval or rejection of the full appropriations committee, but normally the full committee backs up its subcommittees.

The effect of the action as explained by members is to reject the president's request to cancel $237,000,000 in contract authorizations already approved by Congress. The actual money has never been appropriated and the contract authorization has not been used.

Has Many Complaints
But the original hospital program approved by Congress anticipated that the entire amount eventually would be spent.

Committee members offered no explanation for the action although they said numerous members of Congress in whose districts hospitals were to have been built had complained vigorously.

The Veterans Administration subsequently cancelled 24 hospital projects and reduced the planned capacity of 14 others.

The result, it was explained at the time, would be a cut of $279,000,000 in the original total of $1,200,000,000 authorized for construction work. Hospitals already scheduled for completion, the president said, will cost $42,000,000 more than originally estimated.

The cancelled hospital projects include:

The 200-bed General Medical hospital, Harrisburg, Pa.
The projects reduced include:
The proposed 1,250-bed neuropsychiatric hospitals at Pittsburgh, Pa., and Cleveland, cut to 1,000 beds each.

Proposed 1,200-bed General Medical hospital at Pittsburgh, cut to 750 beds.

Proposed 1,000-bed General Medical hospital at Philadelphia cut to 500 beds.

WILL REJECT
RUSS PROTEST

Washington, April 1 (AP)—Diplomatic authorities predicted today that the United States and other Atlantic powers will reject outright Russia's protest against their security treaty.

The only question that occurred to them was: Shall the turn-down be by an official diplomatic note or by a public statement?

Russia's protest was delivered late yesterday, having been sent around to the State department by the Russian embassy. Translators were set to work to have it ready for Secretary of State Acheson.

The text as released in London by the Russian news agency complained that the Atlantic Defense pact, due to be signed here Monday by 12 nations, is aggressive in character and is directed against the Soviet Union. Russia had previously taken this stand in a less formal way.

There was no immediate official comment here, but there appeared no slightest chance that the protest would affect the treaty signing schedule.

Secretary Acheson scheduled a high pressure round of conferences with western European foreign ministers today. They included a talk on Germany with Robert Schuman of France.

AT UNIONTOWN

Uniontown, Pa., April 1 (AP)—A baby tornado that injured three persons as it swept across the Uniontown Country club and six farms left damage unofficially estimated today at from $150,000 to $200,000.

Two of those injured were treated at Uniontown hospital. Leo Williams, 35, of Uniontown, sustained back injuries, while Virginia Lint, five, of nearby Balsinger, was treated for bruises suffered when the wind hurled her against a barn.

MINERS MARK
MITCHELL DAY

Pittsburgh, April 1 (AP)—John L. Lewis' United Mine workers are taking today off to pay homage to one of their early leaders.

April 1 is known in the coal fields as John Mitchell day and is observed under terms of their contract annually as a holiday to mark the start of the eight-hour day in the coal industry. In recent years Lewis has shared the honors, with some miners calling April 1 Lewis-Mitchell day.

Most of the soft coal diggers will continue their holiday until Monday, although the anthracite miners of the eastern Pennsylvania fields will work tomorrow — principally because of the deep inroads made in the nation's coal stockpile during the recent two-week work stoppage ordered by Lewis.

Some captive mines, owned by steel companies, will operate tomorrow.

In Illinois, 17,000 members of the Independent Progressive Mine workers will work today. Some diggers also are at work in the hard coal pits, where Mitchell day normally is observed on Oct. 19.

In all, about 450,000 soft coal miners are idle today — less than a week after the end of their 14-day

Seek State Aid
To Train Nurses

Harrisburg, April 1 (AP)—A Senate-passed bill granting $1,000,000 to state-aided hospitals for student nurse training was under study today by a House committee.

The measure would allow every state-aided hospital to receive a maximum of $75 a year for each student nurse in training at the institute.

The measure is backed by the Hospital Association of Pennsylvania. Gov. James H. Duff has made no specific provision, however, in his budget for the next two years for shutdown. Lewis ordered the stoppage from March 14 to March 23 in memory of killed and injured miners and to protest the appointment of Dr. John Boyd as director of the U.S. Bureau of Mines.

this type of aid. A similar measure failed to pass the 1947 Legislature.

In backing the bill, the association stated that "the cost of training student nurses in our hospitals is continuing to rise as new and better educational requirements are imposed."

The association emphasized that "when the need for more nursing personnel is so urgent, financial aid by the state to these vital hospital schools would help to insure their continuation."

The World's Nicest Place to Sit!
HAVE YOU EVER sat behind the wheel of a 1949 Cadillac—and looked over the jewel-like dash into the highway beyond? If you have, we think you'll agree that it's just about the world's nicest place to sit.
You're comfortable, of course—superlatively so. Deep cushions, under you and back of you, give a sense of exhilarating buoyancy.
The slender, obedient wheel in your hand is passport to a realm of driving ease you can reach in no other way.
The motor, idling so quietly you can hear the soft ticking of the electric clock, bespeaks the world's finest craftsmanship.
Vision, so wide and clear that you seem to be sitting under the open sky, is a call to the hills and valleys of your favorite highway.
And the happy thoughts that go through your head: "Here is the world's finest. There is nothing to match it for safety, for goodness, for the respect it engenders among discriminating people everywhere. Wherever I go, if I'm sitting here, I'm enjoying all that a motor car can give me!"
Yes, it's an experience to sit at the wheel of a 1949 Cadillac. Come in—and see for yourself. We'd be most happy to have you—whether you expect to purchase a Cadillac or not.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

In Memoriam

SANDERS—In sad, but loving remembrance of Lerew Sanders, who passed away two years ago today, April 1, 1947.

Two years have gone, dear son, In my heart grief lingers on, I miss you more each day along life's lonely way.

You were so young to die, But God knew best. He took you home on high.

I miss you so, that vacant chair recalls the happy days before you answered God's call.

Sad and sudden was the call, Of one so dearly loved by all. A bitter grief, a shock severe, It was to part with one "so dear."

I often sit and think of you And speak of how you died. To think you could not say goodbye Before you closed your eyes.

For all of you we did our best, For God grant you eternal rest. Beyond this life, of grief and tears, We'll meet you Larry, so live with God throughout the years.

Your father,
J. Claire Sanders.

Churchill Says U.S. Atom Bomb Has Been Only Restraint On Russ Aggression

HOLDS WAR NOT 'INEVITABLE' IN RADIO ADDRESS

Boston, April 1 (AP)—Doughty old Winston Churchill thrust out his bulldog jaw, and told the world that:

"Europe would have been Communized—like Czechoslovakia—and London under bombardment some time ago but for the deterrent of the atomic bomb in the hands of the United States."

But, he said "War is not inevitable."

Speaking of the "War of nerves" he advised the Massachusetts Institute of Technology mid-century convocation last night.

"If we preserve steadfastly together, and allow no appeasement of tyranny and wrong-doing in any form, it may not be our nerve or the structure of our civilization which will break—something else will break, and peace may yet be preserved."

Reaction from abroad was slow, but the first British newspapers to comment called the speech a "recipe for peace" and "remarkable."

Stassen Talks Tonight

These comments came from three conservative British newspapers, the Yorkshire Post, the London Daily Mail, and the Daily Telegraph.

In a letter expressing his regret at being unable to fulfill his own engagement to speak tonight at the convocation, President Truman said: "Mr. Churchill, I'm sure, will give you something that will be historical for this period."

Harold E. Stassen replaces the President as tonight's speaker.

Churchill rolled out in sonorous tones a blunt accusation that "Thirteen men in the Kremlin . . . aiming at the rule of the world" had "self-preservation" as the root of their "sinister and malignant policy."

"More Formidable Than Hitler"

Repeating the phrase, "These thirteen men in the Kremlin," Churchill said their "Missionaries are in every country as a fifth column, awaiting the day when they hope to be the absolute masters of their fellow-countrymen and pay off old scores." . . . the largest army in the world," Churchill said, "is in the hands of a government pursuing imperialist expansion, as no Czar or Kaiser had ever done."

Churchill said that the western world was "now confronted with something quite as wicked, but in some ways more formidable than Hitler."

Time Not Unlimited

The 74-year-old former Prime Minister of Britain said that the question, "is time on our side?" was "not a question that can be answered within strict limits."

"We have certainly not an unlimited period of time before a settlement should be achieved," he added. "The utmost vigilance should be

'OLD MAESTRO' REVEALS HIS SPIRITUAL SIDE

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Winston Churchill always can be depended on in his speech-making and writings to live up to his reputation of being one of the all-time masters of the English language. The old maestro's address at the convocation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston last night provided liberal flashes of the Churchillian genius, both in phrase and in content. His task wasn't an easy one—the logical interpretation and correlation of the recent grim past and present, together with their relation to the future. It struck me as being an effort worthy of his record.

An outstanding quality of Churchill's addresses is that they don't need explanation, and this column has no intention of embarking on elucidation. Anyway, you have read his speech in your newspapers and heard him over the air.

Spiritual Thread
Undoubtedly you noted his declaration that "thirteen men in the Kremlin" are "aiming at the rule of the world." You heard him make the interesting observation that it is only the atomic bomb which has saved London from bombardment. You heard him describe the perils of the Red drive in Asia. And then the predictions: "War is not inevitable"; "we need not abandon hope or patience."

Those are among the highlights of his speech, but there ran through it a strong spiritual thread which impressed me greatly, perhaps because I don't recall encountering such emphasis in previous Churchill speeches.

I mention this because it reveals a side of Churchill with which most folk are not familiar. This blunt speaking, battle-scarred political warrior, who believes Scotch whiskey was made to drink, is said by those who know him well to have deep religious convictions. He makes frequent references to the power of God, and his spiritual beliefs are said to have given him the strength to carry his tremendous burden during those awful days when England was fighting for her very life against the Hitlerian attack.

Second Death Is Caused By Suicide

Philadelphia, April 1 (AP)—The death of a 55-year-old south Philadelphia man also caused the accidental death of a man who occupied an apartment on the floor above, police reported.

They said John Sciola ended his life yesterday by pulling the plug from a gas pipe and shooting himself in the right temple with a .32 caliber revolver.

Carlo Coratunato, 60, collapsed in a room directly above that of Sciola.

IRC TO MEET APRIL 22-24

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 1 (AP)—Approximately 30 Pennsylvania colleges will send delegates to the initial meeting of the Pennsylvania chapter of the International Relations Club conference at Wilkes college April 22-24.

The state international relations club was formed last November during the Middle Atlantic conference of college IRC groups at Penn State. It was decided at that time that there is sufficient interest in international affairs among the IRC in the State colleges to warrant the organizing of a separate body.

Each State college is allowed three delegates and will be assigned to one of six sections. Penn State will head the northwestern and north-central region, University of Pittsburgh, southwestern; Franklin and Marshall, South central; King's college, northeastern; and Temple university, southeastern.

The following schools have been asked to select one of their three delegates to sit in on the steering committee for the conference:

Altoona, Cedar Crest, Franklin and Marshall, Lafayette, Misericordia, Pottsville and Villanova.

KILLED BY TRUCK

Lancaster, Pa., April 1 (AP)—A truck struck and killed Joseph Kita, 78, of Coatesville R 3, last night on U. S. route 30, 17 miles east of here. Pvt. P. P. Oreszko of the Pennsylvania state police said Kita was identified at a Lancaster hospital by his son, Walter, of Coatesville, and a grandson, Walter, Jr., early today.

The fire rescue squad tried to revive him, then took him to Pennsylvania hospital where he was pronounced dead.

Harrisburg Flier Killed In Crash

Edgar Springs, Mo., April 1 (AP)—The air force has identified four of seven men aboard a C-47 plane which crashed into a farm pond near here.

Seven bodies were taken from the wreckage yesterday after the pond was drained. The twin-engine plane crashed during a rainstorm Wednesday night.

Air force officers at Rapid City, S. D., said four men from the 28th air base headquarters squadron were among those aboard.

The four were listed as Capt. Charles W. Richardson, Jr., Harrisburg, Pa.; 1st Lt. David A. Kenny, Omaha, Neb.; Sgt. Walter J. Griebowski, R. 4, St. Paul, Minn., and a Pvt. Sprout, Salem, Ohio.

The plane was en route to Tinker

Philadelphia, April 1 (AP)—Marion R. Trabue, a Penn State educator, believes the state Superintendent of Public Instruction should be freed from political influence and a state Council of Education, entirely divorced from politics, should be set up.

CHURCHILL HAS CHANGED TUNE ON USSR

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, April 1 (AP)—Winston Churchill, who only three years ago thought Russia didn't want war, has changed his tune.

In a speech at Fulton, Mo., in 1946 he said: "I do not believe Soviet Russia desires war." Last night in a speech at Boston he said: "It is certain that Europe would have been communized and London under bombardment some time ago but for the deterrent of the atomic bomb in the hands of the United States."

Three years ago he said war with Russia is not "inevitable." Last night he said war with Russia is not "inevitable."

Why does he say that now if, in the same speech, he says Russia would have attacked already if it were not for our atomic bomb?

You have to peel the delicate skin off Churchill's oratory to find the answer. There are two main but grisly reasons:

1. If the western powers are militarily strong Russia will be discouraged from attacking.

2. And the death of Joseph Stalin may someday split the Russian Communists or leave them without real leadership.

Churchill never mentioned Stalin's name but he made clear what he had in mind by saying:

"War is not inevitable. . . . Often

Dr. Boyd Says Mine Safety Chief Concern

Kittanning, Pa., April 1 (AP)—Dr. James Boyd, whose appointment as director of the U. S. Bureau of Mines was opposed by John L. Lewis, says mine safety is his primary concern.

Boyd told a group of coal miners at a meeting of the Kittanning safety association last night, that his agency will "continue to strive something happens to turn or mitigate the course of events. Four or five hundred years ago Europe seemed about to be conquered by the mongols. . . . It seemed nothing could avert the doom of the famous continent. . . . But at the critical moment the great Khan died.

"The succession was vacant and the Mongol armies and their leaders trooped back on their ponies across the seven thousands miles which separated them from their capital in order to choose a successor. They never returned till now."

Except for these things, Churchill's speech last night was milder than the one he made at Fulton three years ago.

toward our mutual objective, the prevention of fatalities and injuries in and around coal mines."

The Senate recently confirmed Boyd's appointment, eight days after Lewis ordered members of the United Mine Workers east of the Mississippi to leave their pits for two weeks.

Lewis said at that time the shutdown was both a memorial to miners killed and injured and a protest against the Boyd appointment. The UMW chief said he objected to Boyd because he had never been closely associated with coal mining.

AIR POLLUTION BEING ATTACKED

Harrisburg, April 1 (AP)—A vigorous campaign to clean up the air over Pennsylvania was underway today by the state Health Department. The department announced a far-reaching program aimed at wiping out air pollution throughout the state.

The herculean task has been shouldered by the newly-created division of industrial air pollution within the state bureau of industrial hygiene.

Dr. Joseph Shilen, in charge of the air pollution program, described the new project as "a new departure in promoting human health."

"Nothing ever has been done in community air pollution," Dr. Shilen stated. "This is strictly a pioneer venture." He added, however, that "we expect little difficulty in advancing our program since everyone is air pollution conscious today."

Shilen said the program was spurred as a result of the "smog" tragedy last year at Donora, Pa., in which 22 persons ultimately lost their lives. "We don't want to have any more accidents like that if we can help it," Shilen declared.

He explained that the first objective of the air cleanup will be to study air pollution caused by industry.

Approximately 5,600 people who make weather study their hobby are on the U. S. Weather Bureau's staff of "cooperative observers."

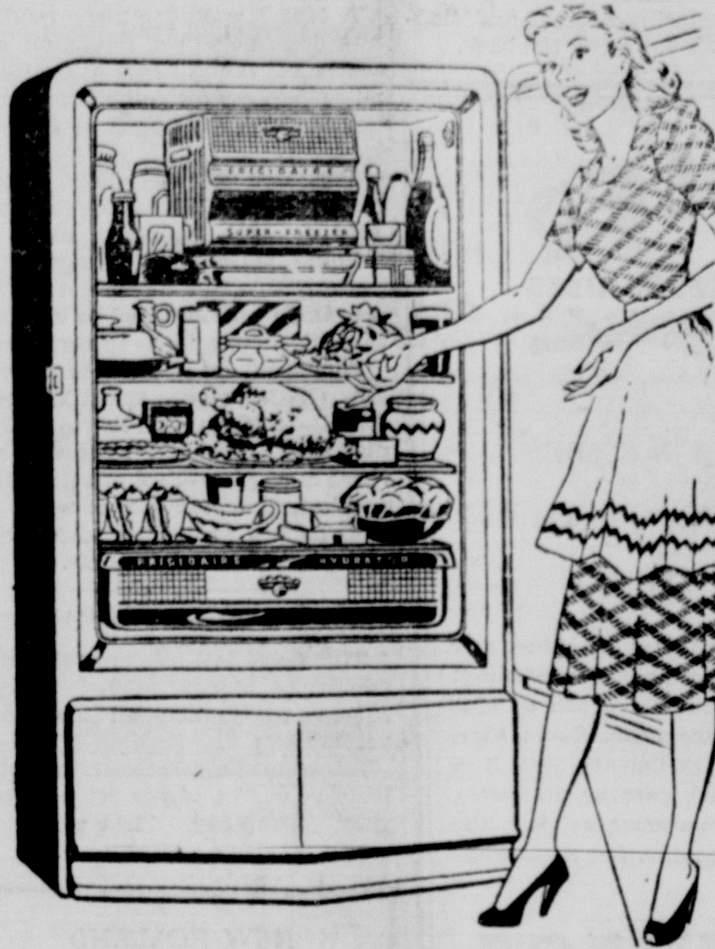

In some marriages problems are all relative.

AUGUST SOLONS COVER SARCASM WITH "BUTTER"

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Apr. 1.—(AP)—For butter patties-on-the-back, see the United States Senate.

Sit in the gallery for free any day and look down on one of the greatest shows on earth.

See the 96 senators, although not all are there at any one time, settle the fate of the nation.

Watch their tempers get raw but notice how, even when they heave a harpoon, they dress the tip in shimmering praise.

For in anger or sarcasm, they still butter one another up with a tender introduction.

"Will the very distinguished senator yield?" says one, although he may not think there's anything very distinguished about the man he's asked to yield.

Peak Of Perfection

And the yielder may wish the other one would stop interrupting, but he says "It is a pleasure to yield to the most able senator."

The high point this year was reached by Senator Douglas, Illinois Democrat, during the filibuster debate. He was against it.

He had the floor and was asked to yield for a question by Senator Russell, Georgia Democrat and captain of the filibusters.

"I yield," said Douglas, "with a great deal of trepidation, as one of the most able field generals I suppose who ever appeared on the floor of the United States Senate; and though my knees are knocking, I am very glad indeed to yield."

Once in a while Senator Tom Connally, Texas Democrat, gets a little irritated and shows it with a sarcasm he lays on with a heavy hand.

Connally is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee which soon will begin hearings on the Atlantic pact. He's for it.

But Senator Donnell, Missouri Republican, has doubts about it, and this week took a lot of Senate time to say so although the pact wasn't up for debate.

Not So Well Buttered

He asked Connally on the Senate floor if he could take part in the hearings, although Donnell is not on the committee.

"We," said Connally, "are always glad to hear eminent senators give their eminent views on eminent questions."

After listening to the 96 of them

STATE SENATE, HOUSE SPLIT ON SCHEDULE

Harrisburg, April 1 (AP)—A split between the House and Senate opened the way today to a protracted lawmaking session until the end of April.

Original expectations of a mid-April adjournment went out the window when Senate Republicans year after year, you begin to form a box-score of your own. Here's mine:

Best speaker—Claude Pepper, Florida Democrat.

Men who look most like old-time senators—Clyde Hoey, North Carolina Democrat, and Connally.

Man who wears me out—Donnell. Men who don't talk unless they have something to say—Douglas and Aiken, Vermont Republican. Two thoughtful, intelligent men.

Most restless—I think Russell Long, Louisiana Democrat and son of the late Huey Long, gets the prize for moving around and slapping other senators on the back.

Rapidly revolving tines shred and mix the soil to a depth of nine inches—making a perfect seed bed in one operation. Saves time, saves work, and increases yields. Special attachments give it a multitude of uses around homes, estates, truck gardens, nurseries, greenhouses and small farms. refused to go along with a House move to work five days next week.

On two successive days, Senate Republican Leader John M. Walker met with rebuffs from his Senatorial colleagues in an effort to accelerate lawmaking activities.

House Agreed

In contrast, the Republican House caucus immediately agreed to a five-day week when the matter was broached by Majority Chief Clerk Charles M. Brunner. But yesterday, a day after the caucus, Brunner told the House:

"It is no legislative advantage however to have one House meet five days a week and the other a lesser number. Therefore I regret that the drive for final adjournment must once more await future agreement between the two bodies."

The 1949 legislature has been on a four-day schedule since early in February. A five-day week in the past usually presaged adjournment in a matter of days.

Urge School Probe

Both chambers recessed yesterday for the week-end after the House received a resolution calling for investigation of school consolidation problems in Pennsylvania.

A 1947 law on the merger-subject was described in a resolution as a source of "a great deal of confusion, misunderstanding and consternation among the people of Pennsylvania."

The two-year-old law required county school boards to file before July 1, 1948, proposed plans for forming merged districts with the State Council of Education for approval. It was intended to eliminate the one-room schools in rural areas.

Sponsored by Reps. Edwin Tompkins (R-Cameron), Albert W. Johnson (R-McKean) and Edwin K. Jennings (R-Tioga), the resolution said there is no plan or set of rules which people might study in order "to determine the wisdom or advisability" of merging school districts.

CHORUS WILL MARK FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Plans are nearing completion for the first birthday banquet of the Littlestown Men's Chorus on Friday, April 8 at 6:30 p. m. in the social hall of Redeemer's Reformed church. This banquet will be for the members and their ladies and it is being held on the anniversary date of the chorus.

The Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of Redeemer's church and a member of the Chorus will serve as toastmaster. Guest speaker will be the Rev. Nevin E. Smith, pastor of Emmanuel's Reformed church, Hanover. Alfred deLong, associate professor of music and voice instructor Western Maryland college, will entertain with a program of songs. He will be accompanied on the piano by Oliver Spangler, associate professor of music and instructor of piano, Western Maryland college. Mack Edwards, program director of Hanover radio station WHVR, who has been the announcer for the Sunday afternoon broadcasts of the chorus, will be a guest.

Committee on arrangements includes the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, chairman, L. Robert Crouse and Harold O. Seitz.

Chorus Has Grown

This chorus had its beginning on April 2, 1948, with a rehearsal held in Redeemer's Reformed church. A few weeks later, the rehearsal place was changed to the adult Sunday school room of St. Paul's Lutheran church, which is still the place of meeting. At the beginning there were about 25 members in the chorus. Today the number is 38. L. Robert Snyder is the director. During this first year, the chorus has had three pianists, John C. Byers, Mrs. J. Robert Sell and Miss Shirley Hawk, who is the present pianist.

The first public appearance of the chorus was at the third district spring rally of the Adams County Council of Christian Education, held in Christ Reformed church, near town, on May 2. Since that time, the chorus has sung for many groups and occasions including the benefit concert by the Littlestown members of the Warner hospital auxiliary in the Littlestown high school auditorium, their own concert, the annual banquet of the Littlestown Hardware and Foundry Inc., and the 21st birthday party of the Littlestown Rotary club, which was an inter-city meeting.

Their most recent concert was at the Veterans Administration hospital, Lebanon, on March 20. The chorus has also been broadcasting Sundays from 1 to 1:30 p. m. over
